Residential lease owners have certain obligations pursuant to the Landlord and Tenant Act and other laws. There are also some very specific Owner disclosures that you are required by statute to make. For example, Owners are required to disclose information on lead based paint in homes built prior to 1978 and Owners must provide a state approved Pool Safety Notice if the property includes a pool or spa.

If the tenant asks you about an aspect of the property, you should disclose the information, regardless of whether or not you consider the information material. However, an Owner does not generally have a legal obligation to correct defects in the property, as long as the defects: (1) do not render the property uninhabitable; (2) do not pose a real or potential threat to the tenant's health or safety; and (3) as long as the existing defects are disclosed. Any correction of the defects is a matter of contract negotiation between you and the tenant.

The Arizona Association of REALTORS® Residential Lease Owner's Property Disclosure Statement is designed to assist you in making these disclosures and to avoid inadvertent nondisclosures of material facts. You should complete this form by answering all questions as truthfully and as thoroughly as possible. You may use the blank lines to explain any answers. If you do not have the personal knowledge to answer a question, it is important not to guess—use the blank lines to explain the situation.

The form is divided into five general sections:

1. Ownership and Property: This section asks for general information about the property, such as location, ownership and occupancy. Any Owner, whether or not that Owner has actually lived in the property, should be able to answer most, if not all, of the questions in this section.

2. Building and Safety Information: This section asks for information regarding the physical aspects of the property. You should disclose any present problems with the property. You are also asked specifically to disclose any knowledge of scorpions or other possible "pests" have ever been present on the property. Although many Owners will answer affirmatively to these questions, full disclosure is the best way to avoid complaints.

3. Utilities: You are asked whether the property currently receives the listed utilities, and if so, to identify the provider. The water source and any known information about drinking water problems should also be disclosed.

4. Environmental Information: A variety of environmental information is requested. In addition to questions regarding environmental hazards, you are asked to disclose any issues relating to soil settlement/expansion, drainage/grade, or erosion; noise from the surrounding area including airport and traffic noise; and any odors or other nuisances. As a result of recent lawsuits and potential health concerns, you are asked specifically if you are aware of any past or present mold growth on the property. Mold spores are everywhere and when mold spores drop in places where there is water damage or excessive moisture, or where there has been flooding, mold will grow. Thus, you are asked to disclose any conditions conducive to mold growth, such as past or present dampness/moisture, flooding, and water damage or water leaks of any kind.

5. Additional Information: These blank lines provide space for you to provide any other important information concerning the property.

Please note: By law, Owners are not obligated to disclose that the property is or has been: (1) the site of a natural death, suicide, homicide, or any other crime classified as a felony; (2) owned or occupied by a person exposed to HIV, or diagnosed as having AIDS or any other disease not known to be transmitted through common occupancy of real estate; or (3) located in the vicinity of a sex offender. However, the law does not protect an Owner who makes an intentional misrepresentation. For example, if you are asked whether there has been a death on the property and you know that there was such a death, you should not answer "no" or "I don't know"; instead you should either answer truthfully or respond that you are not legally required to answer the question.
MESSAGE TO THE OWNER:
The form is designed to assist you in making disclosures to the Tenant. If you know something important about the Property that is not addressed on the form, add that information to the form. Prospective Tenants may rely on the information you provide.

INSTRUCTIONS: (1) Complete this form yourself. (2) Answer all questions truthfully and as fully as possible. (3) Attach all available supporting documentation. (4) Use explanation lines as necessary. (5) If you do not have the personal knowledge to answer a question, use the explanation lines to explain. By signing below you acknowledge that the failure to disclose known material information about the Property may result in liability.

MESSAGE TO THE TENANT:
There are likely facts about the Property that the Owners do not know. Therefore, it is important that you take an active role in obtaining information about the Property. For more information on obtaining this information see the Buyer Advisory at https://www.aaronline.com/manage-risk/buyer-advisory-3/

INSTRUCTIONS: (1) Review this form and any attachments carefully. (2) Verify all important information. (3) Ask about any incomplete or inadequate responses. (4) Inquire about any concerns not addressed on the form. (5) Review all other applicable documents, such as CC&R's, and association rules and regulations. (6) Conduct inspections of the Property.
